MESSAGE

With the Intention to motivate and reward sincere efforts from our Staff, our Government has instituted 'Sarvottam Seva Prashashthi' for outstanding civil servants who have carried out their duty selflessly and innovatively setting the benchmark for the others to follow suit. The award will be presented on the event of Republic day - 26th January of every year and the first award ceremony will be on the 26th Jan 2013. There are 3 categories for this award – State Award, District Award and Department Award.

Thinking of 'Seva' – one cannot bypass SAKALA. The Month of November has been a very active month for Sakala. In all, there have been 5 Citizens who have come forward and claimed compensation for delayed service. This truly shows a progression in citizen empowerment.

Overall in the month, there has been acceleration in the disposal of applications which has resulted in lowering the percentage of delayed service. We also see a reduction in the rejection rates, pendency. I would like to pat every official for their sincere efforts in reducing the difficulties of every citizen of our state.

Many Seminars and conferences were held during the month. The visit of the Afghanistan team, addressing the World Bank organised event at Odisha by our Mission Director, right now the Addl. Mission Director is in Dhaka guiding Bangladesh for Sakala there, Visit of the Chief Secretary of Gujarat on 30th nov to bangaluru to study Sakala are some highlights. On the same note, Professor of Economics from Booth School of Business, University of Chicago would be visiting us during the middle of December, for studying the impacts of Sakala on citizens.

Lastly, the Pilot for our new 114 services is progressing well and all measures and corrective steps are being taken for a smooth state wide launch on 3rd December.

S. SURESH KUMAR Minister for Law & Parliamentary Affairs

Chapter 1

Introduction

From the Desk of the Mission Director

November has been a very eventful month. Not only from the point of view of increase in disposal rates (Fall in delays), but also attending various events like seminars, conferences by both me as well as our Addl. Mission Director taking Sakala to outside Karnataka too. New Service additions also reaching the public is a landmark for this month.

In this month, we have considered all aspects for reporting as of 25th of November and not the customary last day of the month. This was necessitated due to some logistical constraints for the start of the winter session at Belgaum. This is an exception for this month.

The Government of India has sought recommendations from the state to bring in the model of Karnataka to the entire country. The states of Bihar, Punjab & Orissa have come/plans to the state to understand the working. Countries such as Bangladesh, Afghanistan have also come to study the working and implement in that country.

As Mission Director – I was invited by the World Bank to the UNDP and World Bank organised workshop on "Experience Sharing on the Implementation of Right to Service Acts" on 23 November at Bhubaneswar, Orissa.

On the same Note, Our Additional Mission Director Sri. Munish Moudgil is visiting Bangladesh on 29 & 30 November to mentor that country in implanting a similar system there.

Last month, we shared the District wise information of complaints, this month we would like to share the Department wise information. This will give our readers a full view of how the Mission works and get a holistic view.

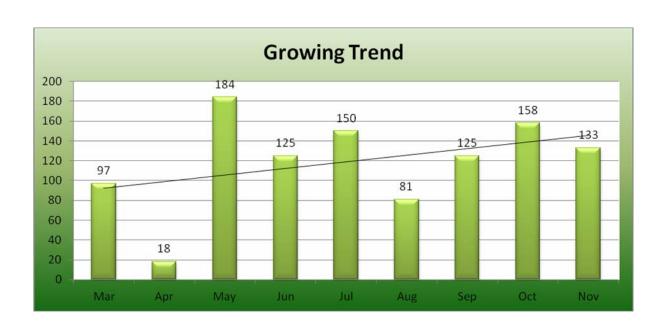

a) SAKALA Complaints Break up - Department wise.

It can be observed that the Revenue department has the highest number of calls – naturally so, as the department's share in Sakala services is 58% in the month. This is followed by RDPR- which again is a very citizen oriented department.

b) Non Sakala Complaints - Break Up department wise.

c) Satisfaction Levels

In a Random feedback obtained from a cross section of Citizens (who called the call centre either for enquiry, or for placing a complaint, the feedback revealed that 95% of the citizens were happy, while 5% felt more services need to done to cater to specific needs.

Feedback

Part A; Feedback from Citizens who benefitted from Sakala:

1. A feedback from one citizen who got his EPIC (Voter Cards) card job done with the intervention of efficient and responsive officers.

I cannot believe that I am now a holder of Voter Id. It looks like a miracle. I have stood in queue for hours together for submission of applications for Voter Ids, visited 2 to 3 Offices several times to enquire the procedures, in trying to furnish the required documents, and for follow up etc. Finally in a flash I understand that I am the proud holder of a Voter Id. My profound Thanks to you and to Madam Dr Shalini Rajneesh in particular for this great job done.

Thanking you once again for the quick action, with best regards, U. Vishwanath Rao

The issue was closed with Sakala Mission Director – Dr Shalini Rajneesh & one officer from BBMP – Mr Elisha Andrews working to a close.

2. SK Raghavendra – A disabled person was denied his arrears- on writing to Sakala – his cases of reviewed and his happiness can be seen below:

Respected Sir,

I am happy to inform you that as per the requisition letter submitted by me i.e. S.K.Raghavendra a physically challenged person working as Stenographer in Mysore, with respect to my pay fixation issue, our Management has sanctioned all my arrears and soon I am expecting the 6th pay scale also. I once again thank you for your concern shown on me and I am here by withdrawing my complaint against my employer as they have agreed to implement the 6th pay scale and already they have cleared my all dues with respect to my salary part. Finally I got the justice with your kind blessings and support for my petition filed.

Once again I and my family members will be glad to you forever for extending your support in a positive manner. Kindly go through the attachment file (it's for your kind information).

Note: This was possible due to the personal intervention of our Sakala Mysore District IT consultant Sri. DS Vijayakumar.

- 3. in another feedback that we received from a departmental IT Consultant on the Police department's 'Don't Care' attitude to problems, he said that the Madivala Police Station did not register his case of theft in a bus. They refused to accept a complaint. When the Said employee called the respected BBMP Commissioner for help and told him of the issue on his intervention, the Police Inspector to accepted the complaint. By accepting the compliant the number of crimes would go up to the department however for the citizens, he cannot get a duplicate of his DL or ATM card or other personal effects- manojjoon@gmail.com
- 4. Mr Yatish Kumar B S from Bangalore had an issue with the issue of Khata.

"I recently was gifted an apartment, in Chandra Layout, from my father. This was registered under "gift-deed". I have applied for a Khatha transfer one month back. Till date nothing has happened. Whenever I go to the BBMP office I am given the same reply that the SDC is not in office or on leave. The office concerned is BBMP office in Vijayanagar, above swimming pool. I have an acknowledgement (pink sheet with a reg. number on top) got when my application was accepted.

I want to know if I can file a complaint for the delay caused under the Guarantee of services act. If so, what is the procedure?"

On the Sakala team working on this issue, the citizen wrote back as below:

With regard to the above query I heard from the concerned BBMP ward office that this email was sent to them asking for an explanation.

I would like to inform you since I have mailed you this query my work at the BBMP office has been resolved to my fullest satisfaction. Hence I have no complaint to make. You can close this case from my end. Thanks a lot to you for following up with the case with the BBMP.

5. In another complaint received from Sri. Sabber Basha from Thandahalli from Bellary against the RDPR department- he said that though the service of providing employment to unskilled labourers came under Sakala – Officials don't care for citizen needs, This is more relevant as rains have failed and no one is bothered about our plight. He said that he is a social worker and has seen many people who do not get jobs under the MGREGS scheme. If you know someone you will land a job!

- 6. In another complaint received on data entry mistake by the CMC Savanur Davanagere, the complainant Jayaprakash said that in the Birth certificate of his child the Mother's name was wrongly typed, however the staff there did not accept the same and said that he needs to file a Affidavit through the court. He feels this is not fair as the application that was submitted was correct, since the data entry operators made a mistake; it should them who should correct it too. Things like this should change. Sakala should also ensure quality and take up these cases. Please do the needful.
- 7. In a written complaint by C.P Thippeswamy of Chitradurga, he said that in the BALEGHATTA village Panchayat office refuses to give GSC number for citizens. He said that he applied for provision of drinking water and some his villagers also applied for other services like employment under NREGA, none of these are issued with GSC. Action must be taken against such erring officials who cannot respect law. He said that Display Boards are not displayed in offices of Turavnur, Muddapura, Belaghatta & GR Halli. He said that a thorough check up of display boards and contact details of officials must be displayed.

Part B: Feedback from Senior Government machinery & Action Taken report:

 Delayed Disposals: (Urban Development) The DC noted that 431 cases out of 434 cases have been disposed - this was for the service of Birth/death Certificate. Similarly, more than 50% of the delayed applications for the - service of Issue of shop licence under the commercial taxes have been made. The others are being worked upon.

- Similarly, under the Transport department all applications have been serviced and there is no pendency. Similarly all departments that require action have been taken and appropriate steps to reduce delays.

From the Commissioner Commercial Taxes – Bangalore (In his letter to the Secretary DPAR)

For all the 9 non Sakala complaints pending disposal by the Commercial taxes, the commissioner said that action and closure formalities has been taken and there are no pending cases for the department. For instance in the case of one complaint from one Mr. Shanbhog who applied for a registration certificate under the LVO 150 has been delivered the service on 1/8/2012 and there are no delays whatsoever in this specific case. The Department has closed all the cases with clear specific reasons for closure.

Part C: Feedback from one of our important 'Catalysts'

-The National Informatics Centre (NIC)

The National Informatics centre - the Nodal agency for Sakala's portal has contributed significantly towards the efficient and accurate functioning of Sakala's Portal. The Portal is not only showcased as the primary tool for monitoring, but also its simple, lucid structuring has enabled many citizens to access information to their needs. Karnataka's Sakala portal is one of its kind where information is available online and virtually real time. This has been possible by the efforts of NIC - the team in Bangalore contributed significantly towards this endeavour.

The feedback is two fold _ - First NIC has explained how they used technology and what has gone into the portal. Second, to a specific questionnaire they have given their responses.

Part I: Write Up:

As soon as the Karnataka Legislative Assembly passed the GSC (Karnataka Guarantee of Services to Citizens bill) in December 2011 named SAKALA(meaning 'on time' in kannada), NIC was expecting and hungry for an opportunity to provide application software solution to the above flagship project of the government as it serves the citizens of the entire state. As expected, DPAR requested NIC to provide the IT solution including the Data Centre facility. To put this project in track, senior staff of the NIC including the SIO & DDG, Karnataka accepted and accorded the highest priority to complete the project in a shortest possible time.

The business requirements gathering tasks involving highly experienced IT professionals of NIC earlier involved in citizen centric applications who completed the study, design and development of the application software within the span of four weeks by adopting latest Agile methodology. The software is developed using Microsoft technology and tools. Putting the best brains together -

The Sakala Portal was implemented in toto in the entire state from 2nd April 2012 after successful completion of the pilot run in four talukas from 1st to 31st March 2012.

Coming to details the SAKALA system has three major functionalities namely (1) web portal based data gathering/dissemination, (2) The integration of the existing heterogeneous citizen centric applications of all government departments seamlessly with the portal as back-end database operations and (3) The provision for the SMS integration for instantaneous SMS and MIS Reports for dissemination respectively to provide the status, pendency statistics, etc.

In addition to officers of NIC state unit, all the NIC district officers were also actively involved to enable the district administration to implement the above system by providing training to end users, data porting and integration of the various network infrastructure using KSWAN and Broadband networks besides fixing small issues found by users within the shortest possible time.

The system is designed in such a way that the scalability, portability and upgradability would be very easy. It also enable the developer to adopt work-flow based environment as and when need arises. There are umpteen number of reports/queries built into the system using the matrix/drill-down method to strengthen the Designated Officers (DOs), Competent Officers (COs), Appellate Authority (AA) in addition to the SAKALA Mission and the government. At present, more than 1.3 crore citizens have been served through the Sakala portal and the system has enabled the mission to identify the default officials and to monitor the penalty payment process. More than 1000 concurrent users are accessing the portal regularly.

To conclude, NIC is very proud & happy to be associated in this kind of successful citizen centric IT enabled projects.

Part II: Questionnaire:

1. What were your first reactions when you were informed that Sakala portal would have to be developed by you?

When DPAR requested NIC to design and develop the IT solution for the Sakala during the second week of Jan 2012, NIC was thrilled about the project and SIO accepted this offer as a challenge. Being a service oriented organization; NIC felt it is a great opportunity to serve the citizens of the state.

2. What were the difficulties that you faced /hurdles that you overcame as part of building this portal.

NIC had faced number of challenges and hurdles while developing this system. The first challenge was developing the portal and application in flat one month time that is by 15th Feb., so as to train the officers of the pilot talukas for launch on 1st March. The second challenge was to understand the GSC Act and develop the system as there were no formats and procedures defined and prepared initially. The third challenge was building the interface with the existing online e-governance systems without affecting their processes and procedures and still meeting the requirements of the GSC Act.

The fourth challenge was providing IT training and awareness on this system to the officers/officials of the all the concerned departments. There were around 10,000 officers/officials who were trained in batches during 3rd and 4th week of March 2012. For this purpose, District Informatics Officers of NIC had played important role. Incidentally staffs of some of the departments were first time users of the IT system. It was one whole team effort for one big purpose!

3. How did it all start and how many candles did you burn to get this happening by 1 March? What challenges you faced?

NIC started on this project seriously from 20th of Jan 2012. The conceptualization, design, development, testing, deployment, SMS interface, training and operationalisation of the portal and application system took about 3 and half months. The NIC with human resource crunch had hectic job in making this project a grand success without any major IT hurdles. Coffee mugs over coffee mugs and deliberations resulted in this portal.

4. One Crore + transactions and growing by the minute - did you expect such huge numbers and how do you still manage

As NIC is handling number of e-governance projects of Karnataka, it had anticipated that sooner this system will reach One Crore transactions and it requires 10,000+ users to operate on daily basis. Keeping these aspects in mind, IT solution had been designed and deployed with rugged IT infrastructure in-house so that scalability can be handled.

5. Who are your core team members and their contributions

SIO/DDG of NIC, Karnataka had closely monitored and involved all the wings of NIC-Karnataka for smooth operationalisation of the system. It was a great team work from NIC.Like we had mentioned, every DIO of NIC was involved in training more than 10000 staff in a short span.

6. What is your satisfaction level with what you have done so far and how do you plan to add value to Sakala.

The response from the citizens for this esteemed project is the decisive factor. Satisfaction to the common man is the yardstick for this.

7. What challenges do you expect in the future and how would you help?

Future challenges will be there and NIC will triumph over them.

8. Are you proud that you are working for a project that have changed so many lives? and how do your friends react to this?

NIC is proud to associate with this project as this is serving the citizens of the state directly meeting their needs in-time.

government departments Soon, the citizen services offered at the State Secretariat level will be brought under Sakala. That's not all, come March 31, 2013, all Sakala services will be made available online.

This was announced by S. Suresh Kumar, Minister for BWSSB, Law and Parliamentary Affairs, after 114 new services, including 12 offered by the Bangalore Development Authority (BDA), were included under Sakala here on Friday. With this, 265 services are now offered under Sakala.

He said that since Sakala was launched on April 2, 1.25 crore applications (at 10 a.m., Friday) for various services have been received from the citizens. Of these, 1.22 crore applications have been disposed of.

He said that other States, including Bihar and Orissa, had sent teams to study the Sakala scheme and its successful implementation in the State to replicate it in their States. "What is more, Manish Mudgal, Additional Secretary, DPAR, is going to Bangladesh on invitation to help them implement Sakala there. The Union government is keen on setting up a citizens' charter at the national level, and a team was in the State recently to study our system. Karnataka's charter will be a model for the national citizens' charter," he added.

Bangalore South MP H.N. Ananth Kumar said that though other States had similar versions of Sakala, none offered so many citizens' services. He stressed the need to have a citizens' charter at the national level, besides passing of the Lokpal Bill. He claimed that the Union government was being indifferent to the needs of the State. "Both Bangalore North MP D.B. Chandre Gowda and I will raise this issue on behalf of the State at Parliament's Winter Session that will be held soon," he said.

Minister for Home and Transport R. Ashok, who is district in-charge, said that with Sakala, citizens no longer have to run from pillar to post for essential services from the various departments. "The BJP government has received a lot of brickbats from all quarters. They even labelled Vidhana Soudha 'Nidhana (slow) Soudha'. I would like to tell these detractors that this unique scheme is in place only because of the State government," he said.

The helping hand: Interns with Sakala ease workload

Aparajita Ray | TNN

Bangalore: Sakala, which has only half a dozen brains working in the core team to handle complaints and oversee timely delivery of services, had taken the services of two interns to ease its load. The idea has obviously worked for the Department of Personal and Administrative Reforms (DPAR). It now plans to take in more interns who can imbue new thoughts and simplify the process of complaint management and documentation.

"We had two boys who are doing their PG in media studies and they left a great impression on us. The youth had fresh ideas which they candidly shared with us to help improve our ways of working. It helps us if we get more people to work," said Shalini Rajneesh, secretary, DPAR.

Shalini has now sent proposals of internship with the department to colleges like Bhartiya Vidya Bhavan Management College and Christ University. "There are students who are already doing some research in various social areas. They have great ideas and experience in the kind of work that we need in Sakala. We have elicited good response from students and principals," she added.

Although Ravi wants to be a journalist in future, he says that this internship helped him sharpen his skills in field work, reporting, documenting, editing and translating. Recalling his first assignment, Ravi said, "For the first time I went to a BBMP office in KR Puram to see whether khata and tax services were delivered to citizens on time, without hassles. We posed as common people and spoke to citizens who confided their complaints to us. Later officials also opened up."

Balaram Keshava DN, another second year PG student in media studies of the same college, says such work is satisfying as he was able to solve real-time issues. "Given an opportunity, I'd love to be absorbed in the DPAR." he said.

"These boys showed us we could scan or photograph the complaints and cases to document them and reduce paperwork. If such bright candidates are absorbed in DPAR, we can later depute them in various departments where they can help improve the service delivery of the departments," he said.

A Cartoon that appeared in Prajavani – a popular daily in Kannada:

It reads "I know you have been running from pillar to post from the last 30 years! But what to do.....the work you are here for does not come under Sakala"

An article in Prajavani

"Spandanadinda Sakalakke" (from Spandana to Sakala)

In a candid interview Sri.

Munish Moudgil
Additional Mission Director

and Director MGNREGS to

Prajavani Newspaper

(which appeared in the newspapers on 22 Nov 2012).

Much before the Madhya Pradesh promulgated Citizen Services in its state (in 2010), or, even much before Bihar introduced RTPS (in 2011); Karnataka (we) started and functionalised a similar program, without any hype or show, in the northern most part of Karnataka – Bidar District. This was about 6 years ago (2006).

What was then a local district level imaginative initiative for citizen centric service delivery in the form of Spandana Counter, not many could dream that a bigger and more organised SAKALA would be implemented across the state after some years! The Deputy Commissioner at that time was Sri. Munish Moudgil – IAS recalls commonality with today's' Sakala.

When asked whether the roots of present Sakala lie in Spandana that he introduced in Bidar, his humble answer is a firm NO. He says Sakala was conceptualised by the then Chief Minister Sri. Sadananada Gowda and Sri Suresh Kumar, Law Minister, who are the Architects of SAKALA program. However, when asked by the Chief Secretary whether he would be willing to work for this project – he wholeheartedly jumped into the initiative.

Much before the dawn of Sakala – it is interesting to understand why Sri. Munish Moudgil started a citizen centric service? Munish replies that when his father passed away in 2006 – he had to take up all tasks right from pension related issues to Khatha transfers – he did not use his IAS tag, and, approached the whole thing as a common man – in the process he realized how tedious and difficult it is for a common man to get simplest of the things from government offices. He understood that if at least a date of delivery was given for the applications which he was submitting, then he could plan his leave, travel and stay to his home state. However, even this was not to be as government work, he realized, was totally unpredictable and enigma to a common citizen. The file would stop at each desk and needed to be personally pushed. This kindled a fire in him to offer citizen-orinetned and predictable service delivery in his district where he was Deputy Commissioner. Therefore, initiative by the name "SPANDANA" was launched in Bidar DC office. This was on exactly same lines as Sakala of today – viz, (i) About 20 services of Revenue Dept & Municipality were selected (ii) "Checklist" of each service was drawn-up which citizen was supposed to submit while seeking a specific service (iii) Acknowledgment was issued – for all applications (iv) Spl Teams of Shirestedar, FDAs and VAs tracked the application from receipt up to delivery/decision (v) None could pose un-necessary queries once submission was as per "checklist" (vi) Review was done each Saturday, and, each application was tracked and defaulters were to be acted against (however, not a single action needed to be initiated as government servants rose to the challenge. In fact, about 99% in-time service delivery was achieved)

He wonders that when our systems can harass even an IAS officer, therefore, fate of a common man is even more precarious. He says that the greatest problem that a common man has is that he is forced to run from pillar to post. There is lack of transparency and information on services. In order to get over this, a 'Single window' concept was started in Spandana at Bidar. One could file any service request to this "Spandana Counter", and, delivery could be taken on a pre-assigned fixed date from the same counter. The citizen did not need to run from one office to another.

Mr Moudgil confirms that what is critical for a citizen is transparently and accepting applications in citizen friendly manner – however, the office that renders the service should prepare a checklist in order to ensure timely delivery. In order to get this in order, Mr Munish recollects that in his first ever posting at Orissa's Naxal ridden MAKANGIRI district – he would travel in 2 wheeler to provide the land documents to farmers in these areas. He recollects with pride that he used the 2 wheelers to avoid the country bombs that the Naxals would use to blow up officials!

Today Mr Munish Moudgil proudly is part Sakala's leadership team sharing his experiences of Spandana and is playing his part in driving Sakala to greater heights!

An Article from the Statesman Newspaper:

Karnataka cops launch SMS gateway on FIRs

27 November 2012statesman news service BANGALORE, 27 NOV: The Karnataka police today became the first security force in the country to launch an SMS gateway with which to empower citizens with status information about service requests and progress of first information reports. Its counterparts from other states have already begun showing interest in this all-important e-governance initiative. The SMS gateway is linked to the ongoing Sakala or "on time" scheme that it has launched, under which 21 citizen centric services connected with the police department across the state are covered and delivered under the Crime and Criminal Tracking Network System. As per the e-governance scheme, once a Sakala application is submitted under any category, including the filing of a complaint with police, the applicant or, for that matter, the complainant is asked to provide his or her mobile number. This number is required to send or auto generate a 15digit Guarantee of Services to Citizens numeral by way of receipt to the complainant. This is akin to a PNR number of a railway ticket. On the basis of the GSC number, citizens can access the status of their cases through Internet or an SMS alert. These indicate the position of the application concerned. Once the service is ready for delivery, an SMS alert is sent to the applicant. At present, citizens have to make several trips to police stations and even after that there is little guarantee of getting the correct status of their application or charge-sheet. The SMS gateway covers the 21 services that are connected with the police department under Sakala, including investigation of cases. According to Mr Prayeen Sood, ADG, police computer wing, this was the most pro-active, cheapest and convenient method of providing information to the citizens without requiring any manual intervention by police. This is because it is totally automated in CCTNS. Karnataka, incidentally, is the first state to have networked all its police stations and higher offices through the Internet. The application form, whether for an FIR copy or a No-Objection Certificate for extension of visa, to give but one example, can be downloaded from www.ksp.gov.in. The required fee can be paid at any Bangalore One or Karnataka One and related websites.

The Prime Minister's Award for Excellence in Public Administration was initiated by Government of India in the year 2006-07. It had called of the Revised Award Scheme for Central Government employees as well as members of public introduced by the Department of Administrative Reforms & Public Grievances vide Office Memorandum No.33011/1/98 dated:21-01-1998 and Office Memorandum No. 33011/1/2005-O&M dated: 19-08-2010. Following suit, Government of Karnataka withdrew the Special Scheme of State awards for outstanding civil servants vide Government Order No. DPAR 63 AAR 2008 dated:04-03-2011 read at (2) above.

It is a known fact that under the Prime Minister's Award for excellence in Public Administration scheme, only one person may get an award from each state per year. In case of Karnataka only two persons have been awarded the Prime Minister's Award for excellence in Public Administration scheme since its inception. It was felt a new 'Sarvottam Seva Prashashthi' scheme should be formulated. Hence, the following Government Order.

GOVERNMENT ORDER NO.DPAR:105:AAR:2011, BANGALORE. DATED:20.11.2012.

Accordingly the following guidelines are formulated for awards/incentives to the civil servants who have done outstanding work:-

- 2) Except for Police personnel, Fire Force personnel and Education Department (Teachers) who have their own scheme of awards, employees of all other departments including ministerial staff shall be eligible for this award.
- 3) This scheme is not applicable to All India Service (AIS) Officers.

It is felt imperative that establishing "Sarvottam Seva Prashashthi" Scheme at this juncture would be suitable, which will encourage and motivate government employees. It is envisaged to recognize the extraordinary and innovative work done by Officers/Officials of the State Government in the following spheres:
- Implementation of innovative schemes/projects;
